ADVENT

The Holy season of Advent is a period of preparation, extending over four Sundays, before Christmas. The word Advent comes from the Latin advenio, 'to come to', and refers to the coming of Christ. This refers, first of all, to our celebration of Christ's birth at Christmas; but second, to the coming of Christ into our lives through grace and the Sacrament of Holy Communion; and finally, to His second coming at the end of time. Our preparations, therefore, should have all three comings in mind. We need to prepare our souls to receive Christ worthily. As in Lent, Advent should be marked by increased prayer, fasting, and good works. This should lead to renewed desire to repent of our sins through confession, and strive even more fervently to live a good Christian life.
