Christmas Message

Over 2000 years ago, world leaders feared the birth of a baby in a stable on the outskirts of a relatively unknown town in Judah. They were right to fear him! His birth was in fulfilment of ancient prophecies and signified the final battle between two world orders – the old: one of sin and the reign of darkness; the new: the age of sanctifying grace, hope and a new Kingdom. Christ has already been victorious. Yes, there is still evil in the world but do not be afraid for our King reigns amongst us. When you feel worried or anxious, speak to him. When you need strength, consume him. When you are weak and fall, go with confidence into his loving embrace and experience Divine forgiveness & love.

Thank you for all that you do to support our parish as it slowly enjoys its rebirth. Without you, our task would be that much harder. Thank you for all the gifts and good wishes which Deacon John & I have received. We wish you and your loved ones every blessing for Christmas & the New Year.

Fr. Vincent Flynn
