THE SACRED TRIDIUM

In the Sacred Tridium: Holy Thursday, Good Friday & the Easter Vigil, the Church solemnly celebrates the greatest mysteries of our redemption. The three celebrations together form a holy triptych: Thursday, the institution of the Holy Eucharist and the Sacred Priesthood; Friday, the passion and death of Our Lord; the Vigil, the glorious resurrection of Christ from the dead.

Do please pray for the person who is to be baptised at the vigil, the six to be confirmed and the two who will make their First Holy Communion.

Do make every effort to attend all three celebrations. Together they mark the high point of the Church's Liturgical year.

ARCHBISHOP KEVIN McDONALD

On Tuesday 2 April, I was honoured and delighted to welcome to the Church our former Archbishop, who came for a private visit – his first ever visit to St. Wilfrid's. He was amazed at the beauty of the Church and the quality of the restoration. Sadly, in 2009, Archbishop Kevin had to step down due to ill health. He is still very much missed by the clergy and people of the diocese.

Archbishop Kevin blessed the church and bestowed a special blessing on the parish.
