PORTIUNCULA INDULGENCE

A plenary indulgence is a mighty tool for works of mercy and weapon in our ongoing spiritual warfare. A plenary indulgence is the remission, through the merits of Christ and the saints, through the Church, of all temporal punishment due to sin already forgiven.

To obtain the indulgence, you need to: be free from the attachment to venial sin, visit your Parish Church and recite the Lord's prayer, the creed and pray for the Pope's intentions, go to confession and receive Holy Communion. If you are not free from the attachment to venial sin, the indulgence becomes a partial indulgence.

PORTIUNCULA INDULGENCE

St. Francis of Assisi repaired three chapels. The third was popularly called the Portiuncula or the Little Portion, dedicated to St. Mary of the Angels. It is now enclosed in a sanctuary at Assisi.

The friars came to live at the Little Portion in early 1211. It became the "motherhouse" of the Franciscans. This is where St. Clare came to the friars to make her vows during the night following Palm Sunday in 1212 and where St. Francis died on 3 October 1226.

Because of the favours from God obtained at the Portiuncula, St. Francis requested the Pope to grant remission of sins to all who came there. The privilege extends beyond the Portiuncula to others churches around the World on 2 August.
