DIVINE MERCY

Sister Faustina:

In the evening during benediction, such thoughts as these began to distress me: Is not perhaps all this that I am saying about God's great mercy just a lie or an illusion...? And I wanted to think about this for a while, when I heard a strong and clear inner voice saying: Everything that you say about My goodness is true: language has no adequate expression to extol My goodness. These words were so filled with power and so clear that I would give me life in declaring they came from God. I can tell this by the profound peace that accompanied them at that time and that still remains with me. This peace gives me such a great strength and power that all difficulties, adversities, sufferings, and death itself are as nothing. This light gives me a glimpse of the truth that all my efforts to bring souls to know the mercy of the Lord are very pleasing to God. And from this spring such great joy in my soul that I do not know whether it could be any greater in heaven. Oh, if souls would only be willing to listen, at least little, to the voice of conscience and the voice – that is, the inspirations – of the Holy Spirit! I say at least a little because once we are open ourselves to the influence of the Holy Spirit, He Himself will fulfil what is lacking in us. (Diary 359)

Let us all remain united in prayers and love as one in Our Lord Jesus Christ.

Fr Tomasz and Deacon John
