THE SANCTUARY LAMP

IS BURNING PERPETUALLY THIS WEEK FOR THE GOOD HEALTH OF:

EILEEN BABER

Requests via the sacristy. Recommended minimum donation £10

MISSIO

Next Sunday there will be a retiring collection for Missio, the Church's official organ for the support of foreign missions. All of the money collected goes in its entirety to support churches, hospitals, schools and vocations in countries where the Church is new, young or poor. All resources are distributed equitably and justly on the basis of need.

PLEASE SUPPORT OUR BUILDING & RESTORATION PROJECT

All of the money raised in the second collection goes towards the restoration of our beautiful Church.

The beautiful stonework around the upper windows is slowly being restored. A seal is being applied around the windows to prevent future water penetration. Plaster, which has blown, is being removed; a water sealant will be applied before re-plastering.

On 23 October we will begin to rewire the Church and fit new lights (£20,000), with proper circuit breakers. This will be a somewhat lengthy process as the electrician has other commitments. Much of the wiring is incredibly old with areas having not been earthed.

NATIONAL SHRINE OF ST. JUDE

Saturday 28 October 2pm – 4.00pm

Faversham, ME13 - 7JW

The national shrine, based in our diocese, will celebrate the feast with Mass and the blessing of oil and anointing. A nice day out and an opportunity to meet the Carmelite Friars.
