EASTER MESSAGE

You have a natural right to defend your home. There is an expectation that your home will be a place of welcome, joy and peace, safety and security. I suppose you could sum up these truisms by simply saying: love your home. This is especially true when we are speaking of our home the Church. When we enter into the Church through baptism, the Church truly becomes our home. That relationship is expressed through our attachment to our Parish. Love your Parish! Vertically, you commune with God; horizontally you are in communion with those around you. You have a duty to care for them and to ensure that we, through our Parish, are reaching out to them and fulfilling the Divine mandate given by the Risen Christ: Go, therefore, make disciples of all nations.

Wishing you & your loved ones,
every blessing for Easter,

Fr. Vincent Flynn
